

To All Potential Participants

The Westbrook/Gorham Community Chamber of Commerce is now accepting applications for the 42nd annual Westbrook Together Days, which will be held June 2 & 3 2023, at Westbrook's Riverbank Park. There are no rain dates. Please join us in celebrating another successful weekend as Westbrook and neighboring communities come together for our annual festival.

Similar to years past, the placement of a vehicle/trailer with axles on the grass will not be allowed, vendors with this type of setup will be arranged along the park road in a single file. Please check in at the Chamber Booth for your setup location. Vehicles will be allowed to drop off and pick up only before and after the event. NO VEHICLE TRAFFIC WILL BE ALLOWED DURING EVENT HOURS. THIS WILL BE STRICTLY ENFORCED.

In an effort to provide an atmosphere more beneficial to fundraising for local organizations, we will limit the number of duplicate items/vendors.

The following is the non refundable fee structure for one standard space, approx. 10' X 10'. Additional space used may be subject to additional fee. Contact vendor coordinator for questions.

New this year. Non-Profit Organizations providing info. only, will not be charged a vendor fee.

Non-profit vendors raising funds:

$100 if received before May 5, 2023, $150 thereafter.

Professional/Business Vendors:

$225.00 if received before May 5, 2023, $275 thereafter.

All vendor spots include 1- 20A 110v elec outlet. 220v available for $50 additional fee.

- Please note all vendors will need to provide all electrical cords and water hose for their needs. All 220v elec. cords need to have the male 4 prong L30 twist loc plug. No direct connections.

Spaces are limited, so if you plan on participating in this year's event, return the enclosed application, together with your payment, release form and insurance certificate, prior to May 5, 2023.
